Programs Update:

Fall Program: Smart Start Soccer, Swim Lessons, Gymnastics

We discussed Spring Theatre – We need 20 kids we do not have 20 so there is no theatre

Chair Person's Report: John Boiano not present (no report)

Evaluate 300th Anniversary:

*We discussed having an APRC Banner made for APRC. Dan Kehoe will price them.

Evaluate Halloween Party:

*We need new ink for the crafts (old ink dry)

*It was good to have all the help this year.

*Discussed keeping the games simple

*Discussed having caution tape to block off the John Walker Sling Shot Bean Bag activity

*We need more parents to help out

*We would like to have more role playing at this event (dress up as Frankenstein, etc)

New Business

Activator: We will be taking a break from the Activator. We will use the Ashford Citizen. We will ask about using color paper. Suggestions of having a table of contents, "at a glance" calendar with highlights of the month.

Carol Sing: Sherry pulled out the list that Dan had made regarding ways we could be more organized with the Carol Sing. All are good suggestions and we will be using that list. Members of APRC to bring a dish of cookies to this event. The Carol Sing is to take place December 7th at 4:30 P.M. with preparation time at approximately 2:30 P.M. Robin P. to make the soup as she did last year. There is a list of items to be done for this and Sherry will post up a sign-up sheet via e-mail for us to volunteer for.

Basketball –

Includes: 3rd and 4th grade girls team, 5th – 8th grade girls looking for a league
1 – 3-4th grade, 1-5-6th graders and 1-7-8th graders
Working on girls high school and working on getting coaches.
Noah King said that he will coach.

New York City Trips:

This is Saturday, December 6th. We have 8 tickets sold.

Budget Request – This will be done in January

Next Meeting – There is no December meeting

Adjournment – Kim made motion to adjourn and Dan seconded. We adjourned at 9:10 P.M.
